

9th Joint IOS/APB/EACES

Summer Academy on Central and Eastern Europe

Organized by:
the Leibniz-Institute for East and Southeast European Studies (IOS Regensburg) in cooperation with the Akademie für Politische Bildung Tutzing (APB) and the European Association for Comparative Economic Studies (EACES)

Call for papers

Family in Transition: Context, Values, and Choice

July 10–12, 2017 in Tutzing, Germany

We invite scholars from economics and related disciplines to submit extended abstracts or full papers. Preference will be given to papers focusing on Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union. Topics include, but are not limited to:

- family policy, fertility, mortality, household formation and break up
- child education, health and wellbeing
- migration of family members and its effect on those left behind
- gender inequality and decision-making in the family
- intergenerational mobility and intergenerational transmission of status, values, norms

Keynote speakers:

- Prof. Michael Gebel (Universität Bamberg)
- Prof. Mieke Meurs (American University, Washington, DC)
- Prof. Franziska Gassmann (Bonn-Rhein-Sieg University of Applied Science, UNU-Merit/MGSOG)

Submissions should include:

1. a CV (including your contact details and affiliation);
2. an extended abstract (maximum 2,000 words) or a full paper.

Please submit your application to Dr. Kseniia Gatskova:
gatskova@ios-regensburg.de

Submission deadline: April 16, 2017.

Workshop language: English.

Conference fee: 50 € (including single-room accommodation for two nights and all meals)

Accepted participants will be notified by May 1, 2017.
Full accepted papers are expected by May 22, 2017.

The IOS/APB/EACES Summer Academies on Central and Eastern Europe aim to bring together Ph.D. students and Postdocs in a workshop atmosphere. The Hans Raupach Award will honor the author(s) of a paper of exceptional merit.

Further information on the program and past summer academies is available at: <http://www.ios-regensburg.de/veranstaltungen/summer-academy.html>

Submission deadline:
April 16, 2017

Summer academy dates:
July 10–12, 2017

Location: Akademie für politische Bildung Tutzing on Lake Starnberg near Munich

IOS Regensburg is an interdisciplinary area studies center affiliated with the University of Regensburg. It explores economic, political, and historical developments in East and Southeast Europe from a global perspective. Apart from research, it provides policy advice both within Germany and internationally.

Situated on beautiful Lake Starnberg, right between Munich and the mountain range, APB Tutzing has a reputation for organizing social sciences conferences and workshops.